Alana Mercante, Academic Counselor

Scheduling Policies to Know:

Six credits is the standard load. If you want to take seven credits, you must discuss the implications of this with Ms. Mercante.

The maximum number of AP credits a student may take per year is four. AP Computer Science is the only exception to this as a fifth AP credit.

Your schedule card must completed, signed, and submitted it to your academic advisor by Monday, April 3. Cards turned in after this deadline will not be given priority in the registration process.
